1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The directors of Advanced Semiconductor Engineering, Inc. ("ASE Inc.") and the directors of ASE Test Limited ("ASE Test") propose to privatise ASE Test (the "Proposed Privatisation"), by way of a scheme of arrangement ("Scheme") under Section 210 of the Companies Act, Chapter 50 of Singapore (the "Companies Act"), and in accordance with the Singapore Code on Take-overs and Merger (the "Code").
- 1.2 ASE Test is incorporated in Singapore. Certain of its ordinary shares in the share capital of ASE Test are listed and quoted on The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. ("NASDAQ") (the "ASE Test NASDAQ Shares") and its remaining ordinary shares in the share capital of ASE Test are represented by ASE Test Taiwan Depository Shares ("ASE Test TDSs", and together with the ASE Test NASDAQ Shares, the "ASE Test Shares") which are listed and quoted on the Taiwan Stock Exchange ("TSE"). As at the date of this announcement (the "Joint Announcement"), ASE Test has a total of 101,028,341 issued ASE Test Shares.

- 1.4 Shareholders of ASE Inc. and ASE Test and potential investors in ASE Inc. and ASE Test should be aware that the effectiveness of the Scheme is subject to the conditions set forth in the Schedule, including, among other things, the approval of the Scheme by Eligible ASE Test Shareholders (defined below) other than the affiliates<sup>1</sup> of ASE Inc. (which affiliates include, without limitation to, the directors and executive officers of ASE Inc.) (the "Unaffiliated ASE Test Shareholders") present and voting, either in person or by proxy, at the Court Meeting, and thus the Scheme may or may not become effective. Shareholders of ASE Inc. and ASE Test and potential investors of ASE Inc. and ASE Test should therefore exercise caution when dealing in the shares in ASE Inc. or in ASE Test Shares. Persons who are in doubt as to the action they should take should consult their stockbroker, bank manager, solicitor or other professional advisers.

<sup>1</sup> For purposes of this Joint Announcement, "affiliates" shall mean with respect to any person, any other person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with such first person.

2. THE SCHEME

2.1 Scheme. ASE Inc. and ASE Test today entered into a scheme implementation agreement (the "Implementation Agreement") to implement the Scheme. The Scheme will involve, inter alia, the transfer to ASE Inc. on the date on which the Scheme becomes effective (the "Effective Date") of all the ASE Test Shares held by the shareholders of ASE Test other than ASE Inc. and its subsidiaries (the "Eligible ASE Test Shareholders") of record as of the Books Closure Date ("Books Closure Date" means the date falling ten (10) calendar days immediately after the Court Hearing<sup>2</sup> or such date to be announced (before the Effective Date), being the date on which the Register of Transfers and the Register of Members of ASE Test will be closed for the purposes of determining the entitlement of the Eligible ASE Test Shareholders to the Scheme Consideration pursuant to the Scheme) and, in the case of ASE Test Shares issued pursuant to the Options Proposal (defined below in paragraph 5.2), as of the Effective Date, in exchange for the cash consideration payable by ASE Inc. described below (the "Scheme Consideration").

2.2 Scheme Consideration.

Eligible ASE Test Shareholders of record as of Books Closure Date will be entitled to receive the following Scheme Consideration upon the Scheme becoming effective:

- (a) for each ASE Test NASDAQ Share held by such Eligible ASE Test Shareholder, US$14.78 in cash; and
- (b) for each ASE Test TDS held by such Eligible ASE Test Shareholder, the NT$ equivalent of US$0.185 in cash determined as of the Books Closure Date based on the rate published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York for spot purchases of NT$ as of 12:00 noon on the New York Business Day<sup>3</sup> (a day, other than Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in the City of New York are authorized or required by law to close) immediately preceding such date of determination as of the Books Closure Date;

provided that if any dividend or distribution with respect to ASE Test Shares is declared or announced on or after the date of this Joint Announcement, and such dividend or distribution is paid or made to holders of ASE Test Shares of record as of any date that is on or prior to the Effective Date, the Scheme Consideration shall be reduced by the amount of such dividend or distribution.

The aggregate cash amount payable to any Eligible ASE Test Shareholder in respect of the transfer of ASE Test NASDAQ Shares and/or ASE Test TDS, as the case may be, held by such Eligible ASE Test Shareholder will be rounded down to the nearest whole cent, if applicable.

For the avoidance of doubt, holders of new ASE Test Shares issued on or prior to the Books Closure Date pursuant to the valid exercise on or prior to the third Business Day prior to the Books Closure Date of existing ASE Test Options (defined below in paragraph 5.1) in accordance with the terms of the ASE Test Share Option Plans, and holders of ASE Test Shares issued pursuant to the Options Proposal, will be entitled to receive the Scheme Consideration.

<sup>2</sup> For purposes of this Joint Announcement, "Court Hearing" means the hearing of the Court in respect of the application to sanction the Scheme.

<sup>3</sup> For purposes of this Joint Announcement "Business Day" means a day (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and gazetted public holidays) on which commercial banks are open for business in Singapore, the City of New York and Taipei.

2.3 The Scheme Consideration in relation to the ASE Test NASDAQ Shares held by the Eligible ASE Test Shareholders represents:

- (a) a premium of approximately 25.6 per cent. above the last transacted price of each ASE Test NASDAQ Share on NASDAQ of US$11.77 as at 31 August, 2007, being the last full trading day of the ASE Test NASDAQ Shares on NASDAQ prior to the date of this Joint Announcement;
- (b) a premium of approximately 28.1 per cent. above the average of the last transacted prices of ASE Test NASDAQ Shares on NASDAQ of US$11.54 over the last 1-week period prior to the date of this Joint Announcement;
- (c) a premium of approximately 25.6 per cent. above the average of the last transacted prices of ASE Test NASDAQ Shares on NASDAQ of US$11.77 over the last 1-month period prior to the date of this Joint Announcement; and
- (d) a premium of approximately 30.9 per cent. above the average of the last transacted prices of ASE Test NASDAQ Shares on NASDAQ of US$11.29 over the last 12-month period prior to the date of this Joint Announcement.

Following the receipt of a proposal from ASE Inc. in respect of the Proposed Privatisation, the board of directors of ASE Test (the "ASE Test Board") established a special committee (the "Special Committee"), comprised of Mr Albert C.S. Yu and Mr Sim Guan Seng, directors of the ASE Test Board who are independent for purposes of the Scheme (collectively, with all other independent directors of ASE Test, the "Independent Directors"), to, among other things, review, evaluate, negotiate and consider all matters which may arise in connection with the Proposed Scheme. Upon its establishment, the Special Committee appointed Lehman Brothers Inc. as the financial adviser to the Special Committee and Lehman delivered to the Special Committee its opinion that, from a financial point of view, the scheme consideration is fair to the Unaffiliated ASE Test Shareholders.

The Scheme Consideration was arrived at after arm's length negotiations between ASE Inc. and the Special Committee on a willing-seller, willing-buyer basis, taking into account, amongst other things, the prevailing market conditions, the historical and expected financial performance of ASE Test, the market prices of the ASE Test Shares on the NASDAQ and TSE, the financial performance and market prices of companies similar to ASE Test and precedent transactions.

The Scheme was unanimously approved on behalf of ASE Inc. by the board of directors of ASE Inc. ("ASE Inc. Board") and unanimously approved by the Independent Directors of ASE Test at the recommendation of the Special Committee. Jason C.S. Chang, Richard H.P. Chang, Raymond Lo, Joseph Tung, Jeffrey Chen and Alan Tian-Cheng Cheng who are directors of both ASE Test and ASE Inc. have all abstained from the deliberations on the Scheme Consideration which has been negotiated by the Special Committee on behalf of the ASE Test.

2.4 No Encumbrances; Dividends. Pursuant to the Scheme, on the Effective Date, the ASE Test Shares held by the Eligible ASE Test Shareholders of record as of the Books Closure Date are to be transferred to ASE Inc. (i) each fully paid; (ii) free from all and any charge, mortgage, lien, hypothecation, judgment, encumbrance, easement, rights of pre-emption, security, title retention, preferential right, trust arrangement or any other security interest or any other agreement or arrangement having a commercial effect analogous to the conferring of security or a similar right in favour of any person ("Encumbrance"); (iii) ranking pari passu in all respects with the ASE Test Shares then in issue; and (iv) together with all rights, benefits and entitlements attaching thereto as at the Effective Date and thereafter attaching thereto (including all voting rights and the right to receive and retain all dividends and other distributions (if any) which may be announced, declared, paid or made thereon by ASE Test on or after the Effective Date, but excluding the right to receive and retain all dividends and distributions (if any), the record date of which falls before the Effective Date, together with all interest accrued thereon).

3. CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

3.1 Conditions Precedent. The Scheme is conditional upon the satisfaction of a number of conditions precedent (the "Scheme Conditions") which are set out in the Schedule to this Joint Announcement (including, without limitation, the approval of the Scheme by a majority in number of Unaffiliated ASE Test Shareholders present and voting, either in person or by proxy, at a meeting to be convened by order of the High Court of Singapore and such majority to hold not less than 75% of the ASE Test Shares held by the Unaffiliated ASE Test Shareholders present and voting, either in person or by proxy, at such meeting).

3.2 Confirmation from SIC. An application, which is currently pending as at the date of this Joint Announcement, has been made to seek the confirmation from the Securities Industry Council ("SIC") that the Code does not apply to the Scheme for the following reasons:

- (a) the number of Singapore shareholders who hold interests in ASE Test is not significant; and
- (b) the existence of protection available to Singapore shareholders of ASE Test provided under Singapore law (which prescribes the Court sanction process under the provisions of the Companies Act regulating schemes of arrangements in respect of Singapore incorporated companies) and the U.S. federal securities laws applicable to "going-private" transactions.

4. TERMINATION EVENTS

Without prejudice to the rights of termination set out in paragraph 3.2 above, the Implementation Agreement provides, inter alia, that the Implementation Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Date as follows:

- (a) by either ASE Test or ASE Inc. if any court of competent jurisdiction has issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action permanently enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting the Scheme or any part thereof, or has refused to do anything necessary to permit the Scheme or any part thereof, and such order, decree, ruling, other action or refusal shall have become final and non-appealable; or
- (b) if there shall have been a breach by ASE Test or ASE Inc. of its obligations under the Implementation Agreement and such breach is material in the context of the Scheme, by the party not in default and having the benefit of such obligations, after prior consultation with the SIC and any other regulatory or governmental authority (if necessary), by 14 days' written notice to the other party; or

- (c) by either ASE Test or ASE Inc (i) if the approval of the Scheme by the Unaffiliated ASE Test Shareholders present and voting, either in person or by proxy, at the Court Meeting shall not have been obtained or (ii) if the High Court of Singapore does not sanction the Scheme and such court decision is final and non-appealable; or
- (d) by either ASE Test or ASE Inc if the Scheme Conditions are not satisfied (or waived) on or prior to June 4, 2008 ("Conditions Long-Stop Date") (subject to any required consent of the SIC or any other regulatory or governmental authority (if necessary)), provided that a party whose breach of the Implementation Agreement has resulted in the Scheme Conditions not being satisfied on or prior to the Conditions Long-Stop Date shall not be entitled to terminate the Implementation Agreement pursuant to this paragraph (d); or
- (e) by ASE Inc. if ASE Test or its directors shall have withdrawn or modified in any manner adverse to ASE Inc. the Independent Directors' unanimous resolution to recommend the approval and adoption of the Scheme by Unaffiliated ASE Test Shareholders (such recommendation, the "ASE Test Board Recommendation"), or approved or recommended an alternative acquisition proposal, or otherwise failed to comply with ASE Test's undertaking under the Implementation Agreement that it shall not, nor shall it authorize or permit any of its independent directors to, directly or indirectly, withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to ASE Inc. the ASE Test Board Recommendation (or take any action or make any public statement inconsistent with the ASE Test Board Recommendation), or approve or recommend an alternative acquisition proposal unless taking such action (or refraining from taking such action, as the case may be) would constitute a breach of fiduciary duties on the part of the directors of ASE Test to the ASE Test Shareholders in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Implementation Agreement; or
- (f) by ASE Test if, in accordance with and pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Implementation Agreement, ASE Test or its directors shall have withdrawn or modified in any manner adverse to ASE Inc. the ASE Test Board Recommendation, or approved or recommended an alternative acquisition proposal; or
- (g) upon the mutual written consent of ASE Test and ASE Inc..

5. THE OPTIONS PROPOSAL

5.1 ASE Test Share Option Plans. As at 31 August 2007, there are 9,317,326 outstanding options to subscribe for ASE Test Shares (the "ASE Test Options") granted pursuant to the 1999, 2000 and 2004 ASE Test Share Option Plans (the "ASE Test Share Option Plans").

5.2 Options Proposal. Set out below is a summary of the contemplated treatment of ASE Test Options (whether vested or unvested as of the Effective Date) which remain outstanding as of the Books Closure Date.

(a) In-the-money ASE Test Options

An ASE Test Option is in-the-money if its exercise price is lower than the product of (i) the number of ASE Test NASDAQ Shares into which such ASE Test Option is exercisable and (ii) the Per-Share Scheme Consideration (each, an "In-the-Money ASE Test Option"). Upon the Scheme becoming effective, each In-the-Money ASE Test Option shall be deemed to have been exercised as of the Books Closure Date by the holder of such ASE Test Option on a "cashless" basis (a "Mandatory Cashless Exercise"). The existing terms of each In-the-Money ASE Test Option (the "Pre-Existing Option Terms") shall be amended (the "Option Amendment"), effective upon the Scheme becoming effective, to permit the mandatory cashless exercise of such ASE Test Option.

(b) Out-of-the money ASE Test Options

An ASE Test Option is out-of-the-money if its exercise price is equal to or higher than the product of (i) the number of ASE Test NASDAQ Shares that such ASE Test Option is exercisable into and (ii) the Per-Share Scheme Consideration (an "Out-of-the-Money ASE Test Option"). Upon the Scheme becoming effective, each Out-of-the-Money ASE Test Option shall be cancelled on the Effective Date without any consideration to be paid to the holder of such Out-of-the-Money ASE Test Option.

(collectively, the "Options Proposal"). The Options Proposal is subject to the Scheme becoming effective.
